The original Senate Select Committee chaired by Senator Frank Church recommended to the new Senate Select Committee it continue its investigation into the Castro assassination plots and into the assassination plots of President Kennedy. No action has been taken by the new Committee which has no official agreement with any witnesses at this time. MAHEU advised, during Fall, 1960, at request of CIA, contacted SAM GIANCANA in Chicago for information regarding Cuban activities. While working with GIANCANA, it was believed that a leak of information had developed and it was decided to cover the activities of PHYLLIS MC GUIRE and DON ROWAN. Decision to install microphone coverage of ROWAN's room in Las Vegas made by MAHEU. MAHEU believes BALLETTI went too far in installing telephone coverage. MAHEU worked through DUBOIS for this coverage. DUBOIS supplied both men who worked on this installation. Pretext of Los Angeles attorney used as DUBOIS did not know of CIA's interests in this matter. ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~
 ROBERT MAHEU, Mahou and King Associates Incorporated, 1125 19th Street, N.W., advised that during the latter part of 1960, he was contacted by [REDACTED] of 2nd agency

[REDACTED] requested MAHEU to contact DAN GIANCANA in Chicago, Illinois, since gambling activities in Cuba, under the BATISTA government, were controlled by the underworld, it was believed that GIANCANA would still have sources and contacts in Cuba which could possibly be used in connection with CIA's activities against the CASTRO government. (u)

MAHEU stated that the original contact with GIANCANA was made by "JOHNNY," who MAHEU declined to further identify. MAHEU stated that he talked with GIANCANA on several occasions but was never sure of his true name. MAHEU advised that while working with GIANCANA, information was received that his interests in the Cuban situation was being disclosed by GIANCANA to other individuals.

MAHEU stated that it was ascertained that GIANCANA was very much in love with PHYLLIS MC GUIRE of the McGuire Sisters Trio, and had, in fact, asked Miss McGUIRE to marry him. It was his understanding that Miss MC GUIRE had rejected GIANCANA's offer but was still considered a close, personal friend of GIANCANA. It was believed that if GIANCANA had talked of MAHEU's interests in the Cuban situation that he might possibly have mentioned it to PHYLLIS MC GUIRE. MAHEU also stated that it has been ascertained that PHYLLIS MC GUIRE was a close, personal friend of DAN ROWAN of the comedy team of Rowan and Martin. It was learned that during October, 1960, ROWAN was working in Las Vegas, Nevada, and that PHYLLIS MC GUIRE was going to visit ROWAN in Las Vegas. ILL. N.Y. 1121

MAHEU stated that he decided to have microphone coverage installed in ROWAN's room in Las Vegas. MAHEU stated that he had made this decision himself recognizing the risk involved in setting up this coverage. He stated that he was extremely careful as he did not want to involve CIA.

MAHEU stated that in order to secure coverage of ROWAN and Miss MC GUIRE, he instructed WALTER FITZPATRICK, an associate of MAHEU, to contact EDWARD DUROIS, Investigations

Incorporated, Miami, Florida, to arrange to have DUBOIS send two men to Las Vegas to install and operate microphone coverage of ROWAN. MAHEU stated that he could not recall the exact instructions that he had given but it was his intentions to have only microphone coverage maintained in ROWAN's room. He felt that BALLETTI and the unknown subject went too far in installing telephone coverage of ROWAN. U

MAHEU advised that DUBOIS did not know of CIA's interests in this matter and in requesting DUBOIS to handle this assignment, he had used a pretext indicating to DUBOIS that a Los Angeles, California, attorney had made the original request for coverage of ROWAN. MAHEU stated that he was in touch with DUBOIS on several occasions but denied that he had called DUBOIS, instructing DUBOIS to send only one man to Las Vegas and that he, MAHEU, would supply the second man. MAHEU stated that he did not know BALLETTI prior to this incident but did talk with BALLETTI on the telephone after BALLETTI was arrested. He made arrangements for an attorney to defend BALLETTI but again declined to furnish the details of these arrangements.

Subsequent to the interview with MAHEU, he telephonically contacted SA [REDACTED] on May 25, 1961, advising that he had sent word to SAM GIANCANA as to the extent of the investigation which had been conducted by MAHEU of GIANCANA. MAHEU stated that since GIANCANA would probably be interviewed regarding this matter, he felt that it would be less embarrassing to him, MAHEU, if GIANCANA knew of this situation. U b7c

MAHEU again stated that he alone had made the decision to install the technical surveillance of ROWAN, that he had considered the risk involved and that in setting it up, he was trying to eliminate the possibility of involvement of CIA.

MAHEU stated that in the event it were decided to recontact him regarding this matter, he could always be reached through his office in Washington, D. C., or his home in Falls Church, Virginia. U

Los Angeles, furnish photo of Rosselli to Las Vegas in order that Las Vegas can display photo to persons at the Riviera Hotel, Las Vegas, to ascertain if he is identical with J. W. Harrison. Las Vegas should forward hotel reservation card bearing signature of J. W. Harrison to Laboratory for comparison with signature of Rosselli.

In addition to other leads set out for Miami in Los Angeles airtel 6/9/61, display photo of Rosselli to Balletti to ascertain if identical with J. W. Harrison.

NOTE:

Case involves wire tap placed on phone of Sam Rowan, member of comedy team of Rowan and Martin. Subject Balletti has stated that tap was placed by J. W. Harrison who was not further known to him. Robert Maheu, former BuAgent, stated he ordered coverage of Rowan on behalf of CIA's anti-Castro activities but did not order telephone tap. Present developments indicate Sam Giancana and possibly John Rosselli (both under investigation as top hoodlums in CG and LA, respectively) may be involved. On the basis of the information developed to date in this investigation, it appears that there is a strong possibility that JOHN ROSELLI, aka John Rosselli, who is a National Top Hoodlum and the subject of a current investigation by the Los Angeles Office, may be involved in this case and may be the individual who registered at the Kenilworth Hotel possibility: u

3. ROLLINS was charged with a call to the Desert Inn Hotel, telephone number DU 2-6000, Las Vegas, Nevada. ROSELLI has received many telephone calls at the Desert Inn Hotel. ✓

4. JAMES CANTILLON, Beverly Hills, California, attorney, was called by BALLETTI subsequent to his arrest. CANTILLON is ROSELLI's attorney and has been a business associate of ROSELLI. On 11/1/60, CANTILLON's law office was charged with a telephone call to BOB MAHEU, telephone number JE 3-9655, Washington, D.C. MAHEU has stated that he used as a cover for the Las Vegas investigation, a pretext that a Los Angeles attorney had requested the investigation. MAHEU has refused to identify the attorney. It is not known at the present time whether MAHEU actually had the attorney make the request or whether he, MAHEU, merely told EDWARD DU BOIS that an attorney had made the request. In any event, MAHEU probably would have contacted the attorney and received permission to use the attorney's name. JAMES CANTILLON has been interviewed and denied that he participated in this matter except to recommend a Las Vegas attorney to BALLETTI. ✓

5. On interview on 5/25/61, MAHEU stated that the original contact with GIANCANA was made by "JOHNNY" who MAHEU declined to identify. ROSELLI is acquainted with a number of Chicago hoodlums and no doubt is acquainted with GIANCANA. ✓

The following reports have been submitted by Las Vegas in this matter:

Report of SA [REDACTED] dated 11/10/60 at Salt Lake City; report of SA [REDACTED] dated 12/30/60 at Salt Lake City; Report of SA [REDACTED] dated 2/8/61 at Salt Lake City; report of SA [REDACTED] dated 4/11/61 at Las Vegas; report of SA [REDACTED] dated 5/22/61 at Las Vegas.

It is noted that Chicago has also submitted report of SA [REDACTED] (A) dated 3/17/61 at Chicago.

Referenced Los Angeles airtel 6/9/61 sets forth suggested leads for Washington Field Office, Miami, and Chicago. In view of the fact that there does exist a possibility that JOHN ROSELLI, subject of case entitled JOHN ROSELLI, aka, A-R, Los Angeles, may be involved in this matter, it appears pertinent to Las Vegas that the suggested investigation by Los Angeles be carried out immediately; therefore, Washington Field, Miami, and Chicago handle and sureport immediately.

ROBERT MAHEU was interviewed at the Bel-Air Hotel, 701 Stone Canyon Road, West Los Angeles, California.

MAHEU was questioned regarding the identity of JOHNNY referred to in a previous interview as the person through whom he had made contact with SAM GIANCANA. MAHEU declined to name the individual but agreed to verify this person's identity if the agents named him. The name JOHN ROSELLI was given to MAHEU and he admitted that ROSELLI was the "JOHNNY" referred to and that ROSELLI was also identical to J. A. ROLLINS who registered with him at the Kenilworth Hotel in Miami Beach, Florida, in October, 1960. U

MAHEU admitted that he had discussed his plan to wire DAN ROWAN's room at the Riviera Hotel, Las Vegas, Nevada, with ROSELLI prior to ordering that this be done. U

It was pointed out to MAHEU that the explanation he gave in a previous interview for wiring ROWAN's room did not appear logical and was far removed from the purpose for which he was hired by the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA). He said he would stick to the explanation previously given and wished to add that he would never have ordered ROWAN's room wired except for his connection with CIA. X (u)

This case involves a wire tap placed on the telephone of Dan Rowan of the comedy team of Rowan and Martin by Arthur James Balletti and one J. W. Harrison, not further identified. Balletti is employed by Edward DuBois, a former Bureau Agent who runs a private investigating agency in Miami, Florida. Balletti admits to having been assigned to surveil Rowan in Las Vegas, Nevada, and was accompanied by J. W. Harrison, not further known to him who was supplied by Robert Maheu, another former Bureau Agent. Dan Rowan is reportedly engaged to Phyllis McGuire of the McGuire Sisters trio, who is also reportedly a girlfriend of Sam Giancana who is under investigation by the Chicago Office as a top hoodlum.

Maheu has claimed that the coverage of Rowan was put on in behalf of Central Intelligence Agency's (CIA) efforts to obtain intelligence information in Cuba through the hoodlum element, including Sam Giancana, which has had interests there. Maheu advised that he was put in contact with Giancana in connection with these intelligence activities through an individual known only to him as "Johnny."

Memorandum to Mr. Belmont

Balletti proceeded to Las Vegas to surveil Rowan. Balletti, Maheu and Dubois have continually denied knowing the identity of J. W. Harrison and other investigation to date has been unfruitful in this regard. It is possible that he is identical with Roselli. U

Maheu admits he discussed plans to wire Rowan's room with Roselli before ordering that it be done. He stated he would stick to his explanation previously given and would not have ordered the installation if he had not been working for CIA. Giancana is taking evasive action to avoid interview and his attorney has stated Giancana would not talk to FBI Agents. (u)

ACTION

The field is locating Roselli to interview him. Investigation is being vigorously pressed to ascertain the identity of J. W. Harrison and determine the full implication of Maheu, Giancana, Roselli and the other subjects in this case.

We should measure

Re Buairtel 7/10/61 and 7/11/61. U

MAHEU reinterviewed in Beverly Hills, California
on 7/13/61. U

MAHEU stated that in October, 1960, he requested EDWARD L. DUBOIS, JR., Miami Beach, Florida to institute technical surveillance on DAN ROWAN at the Riviera Hotel in Las Vegas, Nevada, but left details to DUBOIS. He claims he does not recall if he specified type of installation to be used but was interested only in conversation within ROWAN's room and had in mind the installation of a microphone and transmitter and not a telephone tap. He claims he definitely did not request a physical surveillance. U

MAHEU stated he takes full responsibility for ordering this installation and that although he discussed installation with JOHN ROSELLI it was not made at ROSELLI's request or at the request of SAMUEL GIANCANA or for GIANCANA's benefit. He stated that this was his own decision based on reasons given in a previous interview. U

MAHEU insists he does not know unknown subject, aka J. W. Harrison and denies he made a call to DUBOIS to substitute one of his own men as claimed by DUBOIS. Stated DUBOIS charged him for transportation and time for two men. U

ROBERT MAHEU was interviewed at 190 North Canon Drive, Beverly Hills, California, on July 13, 1961. MAHEU was informed of his right to an attorney and that he did not have to answer questions and that anything he did say could be used against him in a court of law. MAHEU stated that in connection with the confidential assignment for Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) he had been in contact with SAMUEL GIANCANA and had received valuable assistance from GIANCANA, which, in turn, was furnished to CIA. MAHEU had reason to believe that GIANCANA may have disclosed information regarding the project and, in view of the sensitive nature of the project, he, MAHEU, decided to determine whether or not GIANCANA had actually talked to unauthorized persons. He was aware that GIANCANA was very close in a romantic way with PHYLLIS MC GUIRE of the Mc Guire Sisters Trio. He said that if GIANCANA had disclosed this information regarding project to anyone, he would have disclosed it to PHYLLIS MC GUIRE. He said that he was also aware that in the fall of 1960 the relations between PHYLLIS MC GUIRE and GIANCANA were strained and that PHYLLIS was romantically involved with DAN ROWAN, who was appearing at the Riviera Hotel in Las Vegas. He considered it very vital to determine whether or not GIANCANA was reliable and decided to order an installation on DAN ROWAN's room in an effort to determine whether or not GIANCANA had disclosed any information regarding the project to PHYLLIS MC GUIRE. (u)

MAHEU stated that this decision was his own and that GIANCANA had no knowledge that the installation was made. He said that he did discuss this with JOHN ROSELLI, since he felt obligated to discuss it with ROSELLI, as ROSELLI had been instrumental in putting him in contact with GIANCANA. MAHEU denied that the installation was made at the request of ROSELLI or GIANCANA or for the benefit of either ROSELLI or GIANCANA.

He said that he did discuss his decision with ROSELLI some time prior to ordering the installation but does not recall the specific date or place where he discussed the matter with ROSELLI. He pointed out that he does not recall whether or not this occurred during October, 1960, when they were both registered at the Kenilworth Hotel in Miami Beach, Florida. He pointed out that he had met with ROSELLI on a number of occasions and, therefore, does not recall the specific occasion in which he discussed his decision with ROSELLI. He does not recall what comment ROSELLI made when informed of his decision.

MAHEU said that he requested EDWARD L. DUBOIS, Jr., a Miami Beach private investigator, to institute a technical surveillance of DAN ROWAN's room at the Riviera Hotel in Las Vegas, Nevada. He said that he does not recall what his specific requests were regarding the type of installation to be used, but had left this up to DUBOIS. He said that he was interested only in conversation within DAN ROWAN's room and had in mind the installation of a microphone and transmitter and not a telephone tap. He said, however, that he does not recall whether or not he specified not to make a telephone installation. He said that he does recall that he definitely did not request a physical surveillance of ROWAN. U

MAHEU stated that he does not know the identity of the unknown subject, also known as J. W. Harrison. He said that he definitely did not contact DUBOIS and tell DUBOIS that he would send one of his men. He insisted that DUBOIS had furnished both men to handle this assignment in Las Vegas and that DUBOIS had charged him for transportation and time for two men. U

LA 139-77

MAHEU repeated that he would take full responsibility for ordering the installation, that the installation was made for the reasons he had given above and in a previous interview, and definitely was not made at the request or for the benefit of JOHN ROSELLI or SAMUEL GIANCANA. 4

Date 7/13/61

JOHN ROSELLI was contacted at Drucker's Hair-dressers for men, 9140 Wilshire Boulevard, Beverly Hills, California. ROSELLI was informed of his right to have an attorney and that he did not have to say anything and that anything he did say could be used against him in a court of law. u

ROSELLI admitted that he has known ROBERT MAHEU for approximately five years. When asked if he knew SAM GIANCANA, ROSELLI stated, "Let's discuss the weather. I do not care to answer any more questions." ROSELLI stated that he knew of nothing illegal that MAHEU had done, but for any additional information regarding his association with MAHEU, the Agents should talk with MAHEU himself. u

This case involves a wire tap placed on the telephone of Dan Rowan of the comedy team of Rowan and Martin by Arthur James Balletti and J. W. Harrison. Balletti was employed by Edward DuBois, a former Bureau Agent who runs a private investigating agency in Miami, Florida. Balletti admits to having been assigned to surveil Rowan in Las Vegas, Nevada, and was accompanied by J. W. Harrison, not further known to him who was supplied by Robert Maheu, another former Bureau Agent. Dan Rowan was reportedly engaged to Phyllis McGuire of the McGuire Sisters trio, who was also reportedly a girl friend of Sam Giancana. Giancana is under investigation by the Chicago Office as a top hoodlum.

Maheu claimed that he ordered coverage of Rowan in behalf of Central Intelligence Agency's (CIA) efforts to obtain intelligence information in Cuba through the hoodlum element, including Sam Giancana, which had interest there. Maheu said he was put in contact with Giancana in connection with these intelligence activities through John Roselli, a Los Angeles top hoodlum. Maheu authorized wiring of Rowan's room and discussed this matter with John Roselli.

CURRENT DEVELOPMENTS

The Department, by memorandum dated 1/31/62, has requested that we reinterview [redacted] to determine whether the CIA would object to the institution of a criminal prosecution in which Robert Maheu might be a defendant.

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY'S INTENTIONS TO SEND HOODLUMS TO CUBA TO ASSASSINATE CASTRO

Classified by 16049
Exempt from GDS, Category 2
Date of Declassification Indefinite

Our files contain the following information concerning the captioned matter, much of which has been furnished by the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) on a strictly highly confidential "need-to-know" basis. In view of this, it is requested that it be handled on a most restrictive basis.

This matter first came to our attention in the Spring of 1961 in connection with our investigation of a violation of the Unauthorized Publication or Use of Communications Statute on the part of Arthur James Balletti, who had been arrested by local authorities in Las Vegas, Nevada, on a local wire tapping charge. Balletti and another unidentified individual in October, 1960, had reportedly placed a wire tap on the telephone of Dan Rowan, a member of the comedy team of Rowan and Martin. Rowan at the time reportedly was engaged to Phyllis McGuire of the well-known McGuire Sisters singing trio who was also known to be a girl friend of Sam Giancana, a top hoodlum.

During the course of the Balletti investigation it was ascertained that Robert A. Maheu, a private detective, was involved. Maheu during interview claimed he ordered coverage of Rowan in behalf of CIA's efforts to obtain intelligence information in Cuba through the hoodlum element, including Sam Giancana, which had interests there. Maheu said he was put in contact with Giancana in connection with these intelligence activities through John Roselli, a Los Angeles hoodlum. Maheu stated also that he authorized the wiring of Rowan's room and had discussed the matter with Roselli.

The essence of the above was furnished to the Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy by letter dated May 22, 1961, which enclosed a memorandum of the same date containing data made available on May 3, 1961, by Colonel Sheffield Edwards, who at that time was Director of Security at CIA, regarding his utilization of Maheu in connection with anti-Castro activities. Since our files show that Mr. Kennedy returned the original of our letter and its enclosed memorandum dated May 22, 1961, to us for filing purposes, a copy of the May 22, 1961, memorandum is attached hereto for your information. ~~X~~ 9

You will note that Colonel Edwards advised he personally contacted Robert Maheu during the Fall of 1960 for the purpose of using Maheu as a "cutout" in contacts with Sam Giancana in connection with CIA's clandestine efforts against Castro. Colonel Edwards stated that Giancana's activities were completely "backstopped" by Maheu, who would frequently report Giancana's actions and information to Edwards. No details or methods used by Maheu or Giancana in accomplishing their missions were reported to him, according to Edwards, as such involved "dirty business," of which Colonel Edwards could not afford to have knowledge. Accordingly, he said he had no prior knowledge of the above-mentioned wire tapping by Balletti. ~~X~~ 11

Further with respect to this matter, I was informed of the following on a highly confidential basis by former Attorney General Kennedy during a conference in my office on May 9, 1962:

He indicated that a few days prior thereto he had been advised by CIA that Robert A. Maheu had been hired by CIA to approach Sam Giancana with a proposition of paying $150,000 to hire some gunmen to go into Cuba and kill Castro. He further stated CIA admitted having assisted Maheu in making the "bugging" installation in Las Vegas (referred to above) which uncovered this clandestine operation and for this reason CIA could not afford to have any action taken against Giancana or Maheu. Mr. Kennedy stated that upon learning CIA had not cleared its action in hiring Maheu and Giancana with the Department of Justice he issued orders that CIA should never again take such steps without first checking with the Department of Justice.

Mr. Kennedy further advised that because of this matter it would be very difficult to initiate any prosecution against Giancana, as Giancana could immediately bring out the fact the United States Government had approached him to arrange for the assassination of Castro. He stated the same was true concerning any action we might take against Maheu for any violation in which he might become involved.

On June 20, 1963, Mr. William Harvey, an official of CIA, advised that he had held a meeting with John Roselli (referred to above as Maheu's link with Giancana) for the purpose of closing out the entire matter with which Roselli had been involved. In this connection, Harvey stated that CIA had established contact with Roselli in "early 1961" with respect to a sensitive operation against Castro. Harvey said that for all intents and purposes the operation was discontinued and canceled after the ill-fated Bay of Pigs invasion in April, 1961, but Roselli had not been completely cut off, as he periodically indicated he was in a position to be of assistance.

It appears Roselli has since that time, nevertheless, used his prior connections with CIA to his best advantage. For example, in May, 1966, when contacted by Agents of this Bureau in connection with our current investigation of his activities he refused to talk and immediately flew to Washington, D. C., and consulted with Colonel Sheffield Edwards, who is now retired from CIA. Colonel Edwards in turn advised CIA, which told us. Mr. Howard J. Osborn, the present Director of Security, CIA, freely has admitted to us that Roselli has CIA in an unusually vulnerable position and that he would have no qualms about embarrassing CIA if it served his own interests. In furnishing this information, Mr. Osborn asked that it be held within this Bureau on a strictly need-to-know basis. JSU

In light of the above information furnished us by CIA and former Attorney General Kennedy, it appears that data which came to our attention in October, 1960, possibly pertains to the captioned matter. At that time a source close to Giancana advised that during a conversation with several friends Giancana stated that Fidel Castro was "to be done away with very shortly." Giancana reportedly assured those present that Castro's assassination would occur in November, 1960, and that he had already met with the assassin-to-be on three occasions, the last meeting having taken place on a boat docked at the Fontainebleau Hotel, Miami Beach, Florida. Reportedly, Giancana claimed that everything had been perfected for the killing and the "assassin" had arranged with a girl, not further described, to drop a "pill" in Castro's drink or food.

Also of possible interest is a news article carried in the August 16, 1963, issue of the "Chicago Sun Times." This article carried the headline, "CIA Bought Giancana's Help For Cuba Spying," and it was reported therein that CIA agents had contacted Giancana in an effort to obtain Cuban intelligence after Castro came into power. In accordance with instructions, attached letter has been prepared for Attorney General setting forth all data in our files concerning captioned matter. Briefly, information being furnished is as follows:

Matter first came to our attention in Spring of 1961 in connection with our investigation of violation of Unauthorized Publication or Use of Communications Statute on the part of Arthur James Balletti, arrested in Las Vegas, Nevada, by local authorities on wire tapping charge. Wire tap involved was on telephone of Dan Rowan, member of Rowan and Martin comedy team. Rowan at the time reportedly was engaged to Phyllis McGuire, girl friend of top hoodlum Sam Giancana and member of McGuire Sisters singing trio.

Through our investigation we determined involvement of Robert A. Maheu, private detective, who stated coverage on Rowan instituted in behalf of Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) efforts to obtain Cuban intelligence data through hoodlum element, including Sam Giancana. Maheu was in contact with Giancana through services of John Roselli, another hoodlum, and Maheu authorized wiring of Rowan's room.

We checked matter with CIA on 5/3/61 and learned CIA was utilizing Maheu as intermediary with Sam Giancana relative to CIA's "dirty business" anti-Castro activities. CIA insisted it did not give Maheu any instructions relative to use of technical installations. By letter 5/22/61 we furnished former Attorney General Kennedy a memorandum containing a rundown on CIA's involvement in this. The originals of the letter and memorandum were returned to us for filing purposes. A copy of that memorandum is being attached to instant letter being sent to Attorney General.

On 5/9/62 Kennedy discussed with the Director a number of matters, including admission by CIA that Robert Maheu had been hired by that Agency to approach Sam Giancana to have Castro assassinated at a cost of $150,000. Kennedy stated he had issued orders that CIA should never undertake such steps again without first checking with Department of Justice and stated because of this matter it would be difficult to prosecute Giancana or Maheu then or in the future.

We learned on 6/20/63 from CIA that its contacts with John Roselli (Maheu's link with Giancana) had continued up until that time, when they were reportedly cut off.

It appears Roselli is using his prior connections with CIA to his best advantage. In May, 1966, when Bureau Agents endeavored to interview him he immediately flew to Washington and informed his former CIA intermediary. The current Director of Security, CIA, has advised through liaison channels that Roselli has CIA in an unusually vulnerable position and Roselli would have no qualms about embarrassing CIA to serve his own interests. In furnishing this information we were asked that it be held within this Bureau on a strictly need-to-know basis. We have, however, included it in the attached proposed letter to the Attorney General noting this CIA specific restriction. (u)

We have two other references in our files to the over-all above information which we have included in the letter. One relates to a statement by Giancana in October, 1960, that he had met with an individual who was to assassinate Castro in November, 1960. The other is an article in the 8/16/63 issue of the "Chicago Sun Times" reporting that CIA agents had contacted Giancana to obtain Cuban intelligence.

ACTION:

If approved, attached letter will be sent to the Attorney General, with a copy for the Deputy Attorney General.

RE Los Angeles letter dated 2/23/62.

Las Vegas has in past given some consideration to possible development of informant; however, no positive steps have been taken in this regard. The Bureau and Los Angeles will recall that Las Vegas has mentioned several times during the past year that every time an opportunity presents itself, those SAs assigned to Criminal Intelligence Program matters, make a point of stopping to talk with CI. He knows several of the SAs by sight, and knows [REDACTED] by name, since they have spoken to him on several occasions.

[REDACTED]

CI is very much disliked by almost all casino owners in Las Vegas, particularly those connected with The Desert Inn Hotel.

[REDACTED]

With one exception ROSKLI has always exhibited a friendly surface attitude with SAs in Las Vegas. On that occasion, in the lobby of The Desert Inn Hotel in early 1961 he was somewhat upset because he said the FBI was causing him to lose legitimate business deals by interviewing everyone he contacted. [REDACTED] rather firmly told him not to raise his voice, that the FBI did not investigate any legitimate businessman, etc. CI apologized and the conversation continued in a normal manner.

It is known CI has a violent temper, and treats the Jewish people as if he considers himself superior to them. It is also believed that he considers himself very intelligent, somewhat above average, and also thinks he is quite a ladies' man. CI does present a good appearance, and is always very well dressed.

The handling of CI would be a most delicate matter in view of his violent temper and superior attitude. However, he certainly has extensive knowledge of the hoodlum empire, and would be of invaluable assistance in event he could be developed. In event Las Vegas can think of an unusual approach or develop information which might tend to compromise CI, it will be furnished immediately to Los Angeles. In this regard, Los Angeles should bear in mind CI's fondness for women as has been reported by [REDACTED]

DATE: 4/11/62

Rebulet dated 2/20/62 which granted authority to develop above-captioned individual, and Las Vegas letter dated 3/2/62. per Z

Consideration has been made by the Los Angeles Office to develop captioned informant but first the Las Vegas Office was asked for any action or steps taken to develop this informant.

Re Las Vegas letter dated 3/2/62 furnished details regarding contacts made with captioned informant. The Las Vegas Office advised that this informant exhibited a friendly attitude; that he has a violent temper; and that if the Las Office could think of an unusual approach or development which might compromise the informant, this would be furnished immediately to the Los Angeles Office.

It is considered presently that further development of this informant be held in abeyance because an intensification AR investigation is being conducted now on his activities.

Captioned case is being closed at Los Angeles, and if the Las Vegas or the Los Angeles offices develop information in the AR investigation which will compromise the informant for proper development, the Bureau will be advised immediately.

SUBJECT: [REDACTED]

TECIP

Symbol number [REDACTED] was assigned to JOHN ROSELLI, aka., in 1962 when an informant file was opened for the purpose of endeavoring to develop him as a top echelon criminal informant. At that time it was concluded that in order to develop ROSELLI, some unusual approach would have to be used.

ROSELLI is currently the subject of a pending Anti-Racketeering investigation. Los Angeles is office of origin. (Bufile 92-3267; Los Angeles 92-113).

Since 1962, information has been received from [REDACTED]

Investigation conducted on the basis of the above facts has disclosed that ROSELLI was born in Esperia, Italy on July 4, 1905 and came to the United States with his mother. His father died prior to 1920 without becoming a U. S. citizen and his mother, who resides in Massachusetts is still an Italian alien.

No record has been found that ROSELLI ever became a U. S. citizen; in fact, he claims birth in Chicago, Illinois on the basis of forged documents.

Investigation has not disclosed that ROSELLI is wanted for any serious crime or was ever charged with such a crime during his youth. EX- [REDACTED]

 RE: TOP ECHELON CRIMINAL
 INFORMANT PROGRAM

Re Los Angeles letter to Bureau 1/13/66 requesting Bureau approval to consider JOHN ROSSELLI who is [REDACTED] as a target under the Top Echelon Criminal Informant Program, and Bureau letter to Los Angeles dated 1/24/66 giving this approval and instructing Los Angeles to submit its recommended approach of ROSSELLI for Bureau approval prior to contacting him. b2 7D

Brief background is set out below as well as Los Angeles' recommendations concerning an approach to ROSSELLI.

7E BACKGROUND [REDACTED] DATA

Investigation has been conducted in Chicago, Illinois where there exists a report of birth for ROSSELLI under the name GIOVANNI ROSELLI reflecting he was born 7/4/04 in Chicago, Illinois. This was a delayed birth certificate filed in 1936. Investigation has shown that the signature on the affidavit supporting the delayed birth certificate is a forgery. Intensive investigation was conducted by the Bureau but ROSSELLI's true identity was not determined.

Extensive investigation conducted since the receipt of the information concerning ROSSELLI's true identity has failed to disclose any serious crime committed by him for which he is "wanted".

Investigation has disclosed that PHILLIPO SACCO was born in Esperia, Italy on 7/4/05, the son of VINCENZO SACCO and MARIANTONIA PASCALE SACCO and he entered the United States at New York City in 1911 at the age of six with his mother and one CATERINA PALAZZO. His father was already in the United States in 1911 and he died in Boston in 1918 and never became a U. S. citizen. His mother still resides in the Boston area. She never became a U. S. citizen and is currently registered as an alien. [REDACTED]

7C [REDACTED]
The above fact would indicate that ROSSELLI is an alien at the present time.

ROSSELLI currently resides in Apartment 803, 1333 South Beverly Glen Boulevard, Los Angeles, California, and

In the investigation of FELIPE SACCO, the protection of [REDACTED] has been considered of major importance to the Los Angeles Office and in an approach to ROSSELLI and throughout subsequent interviews or Grand Jury action, it should continue to be a prime consideration.

7C SAs [REDACTED] have been designated to make the approach to ROSSELLI. Both of these Agents have been assigned to the Criminal Intelligence Program since its inception. [REDACTED]

7E [REDACTED]

The brief approach outlined above is believed most desirable because, 1.) This will be a serious decision on ROSSELLI's part which he cannot be expected to make on the spur of the moment. 2.) No matter which decision ROSSELLI makes he will not in the future be able to accuse the interviewing Agents of having made any promises or threats. 3.) ROSSELLI is a smart, shrewd individual and will immediately realize the significance of the information the FBI has concerning his true identity and of the decision which he must make. 4.) He is quite security conscious and arranging to meet him at the restaurant mentioned, away from Los Angeles, should satisfy his personal security precautions.

The Los Angeles Office will review the ROSSELLI file and furnish the interested offices with the names of persons to be interviewed in the event ROSSELLI does not cooperate. This information will be furnished so that these offices have it available at the time it is definitely known that ROSSELLI does not wish to cooperate. When it is learned that he will not cooperate, it is contemplated that the interested offices will be advised by teletype to proceed immediately with the interview.

The Bureau is requested to consider contacting the Department of Justice and presenting a hypothetical case involving ROSSELLI's situation for an opinion concerning the possibilities of successful deportation proceedings against an individual in ROSSELLI's position.

The Bureau might also desire to determine from the Department if immunity statutes could be invoked with regard to witnesses who are called before the Federal Grand Jury for questioning concerning ROSSELLI's true identity and alien status.

Bureau approval of the above plan of approach is requested. Upon receipt of approval immediate steps will be taken to contact ROSSELLI pursuant to the plan set out above.

Fisur of JOHN ROSSELLI was conducted on four days during the past week. On each day ROSSELLI proceeded directly from his apartment garage to the garage of the Friars Club in Beverly Hills. He usually leaves his apartment between 12:00 PM and 1:00 PM and then remains at the Club the entire afternoon. On no occasion during the past week was an opportunity presented to contact ROSSELLI alone. W

The Los Angeles Office has been alert during the current continuing investigation into target's past and current activities, for a set of facts or circumstances which could be used to advantage in a recontact with target to endeavor to enlist his cooperation. It is felt that mere recontact of target without some unusual advantage would be of no avail. However, no information of this nature has been developed.

Plans are presently being formulated to present the facts concerning target's true identity to a Federal Grand Jury in Los Angeles in the near future.

Prior to the actual grand jury action, contact will be made again with target to determine if he will talk to Bureau Agents.

Investigation has been conducted for several years endeavoring to prove this target's true identity as FILIPPO-SACCO.

On 10/20/67, a Federal Grand Jury in Los Angeles returned an indictment against target charging 1 count of Willful Failure to Apply for Registration as an Alien and be Fingerprinted under Title 8, U. S. Code, Sections 1302 and 1306 (a) and 5 counts of Willfully Failing, as an Alien, to Give Written Notice to the Attorney General of his Current Address during January of the years 1963, 1964, 1965, 1966, and 1967, under Title 8, U. S. Code, Sections 1305 and 1306 (b). A bench warrant was issued on 10/20/67, and target was apprehended at Los Angeles by Bureau Agents on the same date and turned over to the U. S. Marshal. He was released on the same date under $5,000 bond. l

On 12/18/67, target entered a plea of not guilty to the charges in the indictment. He is to appear before Federal Judge PIERSON M. HALL on 1/2/68, for setting of a trial date.

In the near future a Federal Grand Jury in Los Angeles will be requested to return indictments against target for violation of the Conspiracy and ITAR Statutes and also for failure to report gambling winnings in his 1963 Federal Income Tax Return.

In view of the above facts any contacts with target could possibly be used by him to his advantage in the pending cases against him.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

Castro Stalker Worked for

the CIA

By Jack Anderson

The mystery man whom the Central Intelligence Agency recruited to assassinate Cuba's Fidel Castro has been laid up in the sick ward of the Los Angeles County jail.

He is handsome, hawk-faced John Roselli, once a dashing figure around Hollywood and Las Vegas, now a gray, 66-year-old inmate with a respiratory ailment.

Confidential FBI files identify him as "a top Mafia figure" who watched over "the concealed interests in Las Vegas casinos of the Chicago underworld."

Roselli has admitted to friends that he was a rum runner during the Roaring Twenties. Operating along the East Coast, he learned how to evade Coast Guard cutters and police patrols.

His name later became linked with the biggest names in the Chicago and Los Angeles underworlds. He also developed contacts in the Cuban underworld before Castro took over the Havana gambling casinos.

Roselli's right background for a hush mission was planning in the Bay of Pigs. CIA hoped to force Castro to leave Cuba.

Risks Neck

Roselli was recruited for the job by Robert Maheu, a former FBI agent, who admitted to us that he had handled undercover assignments for the CIA. He refused, however, to discuss the details. This is the same Maheu, incidentally, who is now involved in a legal battle over phantom billionaire Howard Hughes' Nevada operations.

Roselli was so flattered over being asked to perform a secret mission for the U.S. government that he paid all the expenses out of his own pocket and risked his neck and the assassination team on the Cuban coast.

In James Bond fashion, he held whispered meetings in Miami Beach hotels with Cubans willing to make an attempt on Castro's life. Once, he called on Chicago racket boss Sam Giancana to line up a contact. The confidential files report that Giancana had "gambing interest and an interest in the shrimp business in Cuba." However, the Chicago gangster took no direct part in the assassination plot.

Roselli made midnight dashes to Cuba with his hired assassins in twin powerboats. Once a Cuban patrol ship turned its guns on his darkened boat, tore a hole in the bottom and sank the boat. Roselli was fished out of the water by the other boat, which escaped into the shadows.

In earlier columns, we reported how the CIA furnished Roselli with deadly poison capsules which he tried through a relative of Castro's chef to plant in the dictator's food. Later, marksmen armed with high-powered Belgian rifles attempted to infiltrate close enough to gun Castro down.

All told, six assassination attempts were made, the last in the spring of 1963. Throughout this period, Roselli worked under the direct supervision of two secret CIA agents, William Harvey and James (Big Jim) O'Connell.

Roselli's Reward

The FBI which got wind of the assassination plot, has tried to pump Roselli for information. But he was sworn to silence by the CIA, and up to this moment, he hasn't broken it.

Meanwhile, the Justice Department, as part of its crack-down on organized crime, tried to nail Roselli. The FBI discovered that his Chicago birth records had been forged, that his name was really Filippo Sacco and that he had come to this country from Italy as a child. He was convicted for failing to register as an alien.

He was also convicted for conspiracy to rig card games at Los Angeles' exclusive Friar's Club.

Of Roselli's two CIA associates, Harvey has now retired to Indianapolis and O'Connell is still on the job. Both admitted to a friendship with Roselli but refused to discuss their activities. Harvey said he held "high regard" for Roselli and called the Friar's Club a "bum rap." Said Harvey: "The Friar's Club statement is phony. Roselli had no more to do with that than I had."

Roselli's lawyers are now trying to get clemency for their client, citing our stories about his secret CIA service.

Firearms Fiasco

Under pressure from the firearms lobby, the Treasury Department has failed to enforce a vital section of the 1968 federal firearms act.

The law was passed after the murders of Sen. Robert Kennedy and Dr. Martin Luther King. It authorizes the Treasury Secretary to require full reports of all firearms and ammunition sales.

For the two years that the law has been in force, the Treasury Department has ignored this key provision. The gun industry has complained it would be a bookkeeping nightmare.

The federal government, which has been unable to control the gun trade, has also been unable to fund the research and development for computers and other main-in the firearms field.
